

CAPTURE AN Autumn Moment IN SCOTLAND

FIFE
DON'T MISS

Elie Harbour.

East Neuk

Travel through the quaint fishing villages of the East Neuk and feel as though you've travelled back through time. The harbours are busy with fishing boats unloading their catch, while the bright cottages with red pantile roofs and crow-stepped gable ends appear unchanged from past times.

www.visitfife.com

Enjoying Fife's coastal fringe.

Fife Coastal Path

Fife has an amazing coastline and the best way to explore this is by walking the Fife Coastal Path. The Path, which currently stretches from the imposing Forth Bridges in the south, to the Tay Bridge in the north, gives access to more than 150km of spectacular scenery, award-winning beaches, natural landscapes, nature reserves and a fascinating heritage. www.fifecoastalpath.co.uk

Step back in time in Culross.

Royal Burgh Of Culross

The Kingdom of Fife is steeped in history. Glimpse Scottish domestic life of the 16th and 17th centuries along the cobbled streets of the Royal Burgh of Culross. Look around the refurbished Culross Palace, with its gardens, study and townhouse, and get a true sense of how life used to be.

www.nts.org.uk

The historic Old Course.

Golf

The place where golf was born is still the finest golf destination in the world. Boasting more than 45 excellent courses, the Kingdom of Fife has a range of golf to suit every ability and budget. From the world renowned St Andrews Old Course to the superb links courses around the Fife coastline, there are plenty to choose from! www.visitfife.com/golf

St Andrew's West Sands beach.

Beaches

Fife boasts four of Scotland's Blue Flag beaches - Aberdour Silver Sands, Burntisland, Leven East and St Andrews West Sand - which are clean and safe, with plenty of facilities. For safe, family fun, Fife's beaches are some of the best in Scotland.

www.blueflag.org

Seals at play.

Wildlife

Autumn is the perfect time to visit Fife, when the region is at its most colourful. The abundance of local wildlife is apparent at every turn. Look out for chirpy squirrels and magnificent deer, migrating birds and the largest population of grey seals on the east coast.

www.visitfife.com

The village of Anstruther.

Anstruther Fish Bar

No trip to Fife is complete without sampling fresh fish and chips from the multiple award-winning Anstruther Fish Bar. With their legendary reputation for first-class fish suppers, this is an ideal way to end an active day of exploring in Fife.

www.eatScotland.com

The atmospheric Dunfermline Abbey.

Dunfermline

The ancient capital of Scotland boasts a royal palace and a 12th century Abbey - the final resting place of King Robert the Bruce. This is also the birthplace of philanthropist Andrew Carnegie, in a humble weaver's cottage - which contrasts with the French Gothic style of the Ornate City Chambers. www.historic-scotland.gov.uk